

Ann Watterson Memorial Scholarship

Ann Watterson was a devoted employee of Hoosier Uplands Head Start and had a compassionate heart towards youth. Hoosier Uplands Children Services wanted to honor her memory with a scholarship to a Mitchell High School graduating senior who would be pursuing a degree in Human Services, Health or Education from an accredited institution. The staff of Children Services with a match from the agency have raised $1500 for this one time scholarship award in honor of her memory and dedication to this community.

An application is enclosed for you to have on hand and distribute to interested applicants.
