

Media Release

June 22, 2004

Hoosier Uplands Home Health Care and Hospice is proud to announce that the 2004 CareGivers of the year have been selected. The CareGivers were honored at the annual staff meeting, which was held at Spring Mill State Park in Mitchell. This honor is given to persons based upon patient satisfaction with their job performance, longevity of employment, attendance and willingness to give above 100%. The HHA Staff CareGivers of the year are Vanessa Lumley, LPN, POC Coordinator and Thelma Silvers, RN, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator. Their awards were presented to them by Jacquie Clark, Office Manager and 2003 recipient of the award. The Professional Staff CareGiver of the year is Joy Grove, RPT, Therapy Services Supervisor. Joy was presented her award by Theresa Kreilein, LCSW, ACSW and 2003 recipient of the award. The Hospice Volunteer CareGiver of the year is Jerry Fender. Jerry was presented the award by Melissa Jeremiah, RN, Director of Hoosier Uplands Health Care Division. Melissa stated, "I am blessed to work for an agency that has such caring employees as those at Hoosier Uplands Home Health and Hospice!"

Pictured left to right: Office Staff CareGiver of the Year awarded to Thelma Silvers, RN, Hospice Volunteer Coordinator, and Vanessa Kumley, LPN, POC, Office Staff Coordinator; Lisa Clark HHA, HHA Staff CareGiver of the year; Joy Grove, RPT Therapy Services Supervisor Professional Staff CareGiver of the year, and Jerry Fender, Hospice Volunteer CareGiver of the year.