WHAT IS MEDICARE?

Medicare is health insurance for the following:
people age 65 or older; people under age 65 with certain disabilities; people of any age with End-Stage Renal Disease (ESRD) (permanent kidney failure requiring dialysis or a kidney transplant); and people with ALS (Amyotrophic Lateral Sclerosis, also called Lou Gehrig’s disease).

Medicare is made up of four (4) different entities. Depending on your individual circumstance, you may have one or more of the following: Medicare Part A (Hospital Insurance); Medicare Part B (Medical Insurance); Medicare Part C (Advantage Plans); and Medicare Part D (Prescription Coverage).

Original Medicare, which provides Medicare Part A and Part B coverage, is a fee-for-service plan managed by the Federal Government. This means you are usually charged for each health care service or supply you get. For some services, you will pay an amount called a deductible before Medicare pays its part. Then, when you get a Medicare-covered medical supply or service, Medicare pays its share of the cost of the supply or service, and you pay your share, called the coinsurance or a co-payment.

Health care you get while traveling outside of the United States (except in limited cases), hearing aids, most hearing exams, long-term care (like care in a nursing home), most eyeglasses, most dental care and dentures, and more. Some of these services may be covered by a Medicare Advantage Plan (like an HMO or PPO).

You will be automatically enrolled in Medicare Part A and Part B effective the month you are 65. If you do not want Medicare Part B, follow the instructions that come with the card.

If you are close to age 65 and not yet getting Social Security benefits or Medicare, you can apply for both at the same time. To make sure that your Medicare Part B coverage start date is not delayed, you should apply three months before the month you turn 65.

If you aren’t getting Social Security or Railroad Retirement Benefits and you want Part A and Part B, you will need to sign up (even if you’re eligible to get Part A premium-free). If you are not eligible for premium-free Part A, you can buy Part A and Part B.

You should contact Social Security three (3) months before the month you turn 65. If you worked for a railroad, contact the RRB to sign up.

If you apply in your birth month or during the three (3) months after your birth month, your Part B Medicare coverage (or Medicare Advantage Plan coverage) will be delayed from one to three months depending on the month you applied.

WHAT IS QMB?

You may qualify to get help paying for your Medicare Part A and Part B premiums through the QMB (Qualified Medicare Beneficiary) Program. This premium amount is deducted from your social security each month. QMB pays for original Medicare Part A and Part B premiums, deductibles or coinsurance. You must be eligible for Part A, even if you are not enrolled, and meet income guidelines based on the Federal Poverty Guidelines.

WHAT IS EXTRA HELP?

If you have Medicare D and have limited resources, you may qualify for Extra Help paying for your prescription drugs and monthly premium. To qualify you must meet the income and resources dollar amount guidelines that have been established and based on the Federal Poverty Levels.

UNDERSTANDING MEDICAID SPENDDOWN

Your eligibility for Medicaid depends on your income. If you get more income than is allowed by the Medicaid program, you will not be eligible for Medicaid. HOWEVER, even if you have a higher income, you may still be eligible for some Medicaid benefits if your medical costs are high.

If your average monthly medical expenses are higher than the amount that your monthly income exceeds the income limit, you can still be eligible for Medicaid to cover some of your medical costs. That is the Medicaid spend-down.

Medical expenses you pay each month including premiums for health insurance, doctor’s visits, prescription costs, and other medical expenses can be counted. You can also count “unpaid balances from old medical bills” that you owe.

Your “spend-down” is the amount your income is over the Medicaid income limit. If you apply for Medicaid and your income is over the limit, then you should take all of your medical bills, including old bills you still owe from the past, to your Medicaid caseworker. You will satisfy the “spend-down” for the month if the medical bills for that month, along with the old medical bills you owe, are larger than your spend-down amount.

Keep track of your medical expenses (current expenses and old bills) and be prepared to show them to the caseworker to prove your eligibility. You may not be required to prove it every month, but it is good to be prepared in case there is a question. Keep all your medical expenses and notes in a file to make it easier to keep track.

If you do not meet your spend-down in a certain month, you will not be eligible for Medicaid that month.

If you are denied Medicaid, you can appeal. Send your caseworker a letter saying you want to appeal. For legal advice, contact an attorney or the Indiana Legal Services, Inc. office at (800) 822-4774.

The State Health Insurance Assistance Program (SHIP) is a free and unbiased counseling program provided by the Indiana Department of Insurance for Medicare beneficiaries in Indiana. It is a non-profit organization designed to provide an unbiased place for seniors and pre-retirees to find answers to their health insurance questions regarding Medicare A (Hospital Insurance), Medicare B (Medical Insurance), Medicare C (Advantage Plans), Medicare D (Prescription Coverage), Medicaid, QMB, and Extra Help.
